

NAME & ADDRESS: John F. Tomer
5 Grand View Ave.
Troy, NY 12180

TELEPHONE: (518) 273-1851 --Home

E-MAIL: jtomere@juno.com

DATE OF BIRTH: July 11, 1942

MARITAL STATUS: Married, two children

COLLEGES ATTENDED:

Rutgers University - College of Engineering
B. S., 1960-1964
Major Subject: Industrial Engineering
Minor Subject: Economics - Business

Rutgers University - Graduate School, Economics
Ph. D., May 1973
Fields of Study: Monetary Theory, Public Finance, Labor and Human Resources, Econometrics, Economics of Technological Change

Thesis Title: Management Consulting for Private Enterprise: A Theoretical and Empirical Analysis of the Contribution of Management Consultants to Economic Growth in the United States

Thesis Supervisor: Professor Robert J. Alexander

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

- Teaching:
1. Manhattan College 1983-2012
Department of Economics and Finance
Professor of Economics 1994-2012 macroeconomics, money and banking, corporation finance, introductory economics, managerial economics, Japanese economy, public finance, organizational environment and public policy, behavioral economics
 2. Union College 1981-1983
Institute of Administration and Management
Associate Professor of Economics and Management macroeconomics, corporation finance, financial accounting, managerial accounting (grad. level)

3. Vassar College 1980-1981
Visiting Assistant Professor money and banking, corporation finance, statistics, introductory economics
4. Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute 1974-1981
Assistant Professor money and banking, intermediate macroeconomics, corporation finance, introductory economics, public finance
5. Trinity College Spring 1973
Economics Lecturer money and banking
6. St. Peter's College 1971-1972
Economics Instructor
economic theory, corporation finance
7. Rutgers University
Teaching Assistant 1967-1969 introduction to economics 1967-1968 elementary accounting 1968-1969

Administration: Manhattan College
Chairperson, Dept. of Economics & Finance
July 1996 - July 1999

Research: Rutgers University
Research Assistant 1966-1967
Estimation of benefits accruing from scenic enhancement of NJ highways

Max Planck Institute of Economics
Jena, Germany
Visiting Researcher, Summer 2010

Consulting: Center for Study of Urban Economics
Estimation of municipal income distributions for Burlington County, 1969-1970

Government: U. S. Treasury Department
Office of Revenue Sharing
Economist, GS 13, 1972-1974

PUBLICATIONS:

Books

Organizational Capital: The Path to Higher Productivity and Well-being. Praeger Publishing Co., 1987.

The Human Firm: A Socio-Economic Analysis of its Behavior and Potential in a New Economic Age. Routledge Publishing Co., 1999.

Intangible Capital: Its Contribution to Economic Growth, Well-Being, and Rationality. Edward Elgar Publishing Co., 2008.

Integrating Human Capital with Human Development: The Path to a More Productive and Humane Economy. Palgrave Macmillan, December 2015.

Advanced Introduction to Behavioral Economics. Edward Elgar Publishing Co., September 2017.

Articles

“Why Consumers Are Not Sovereign: The Socio-Economic Causes of Market Failure,” Real-World Economics Review, 81, September 2017.

“Smart Persons and Human Development: The Missing Ingredient in Behavioral Economics,” 2016. Morris Altman. Ed. Handbook of Behavioral Economics and Smart Decision-Making: Rational Decision-Making within the Bounds of Reason. Edward Elgar, May 2017.

“Economic Decision Making; How Our Mind Works,” Review of Behavioral Economics, 2(3), 2015.

“Adverse Childhood Experiences, Poverty, and Inequality: Toward an Understanding of the Connections and Cures,” World Economic Review, 3, 2013.

“Stemming the Tide of Obesity: What Needs to Happen,” Journal of Socio-Economics, 42, 2013.

“Brain Physiology, Egoistic and Empathic Motivation, and Brain Plasticity: Toward a More Human Economics,” World Economic Review, 1, 2012.

“Improving the Standard of Living through Investments in Intangible Capital,” 2014, R. Holt and D. Greenwood. Eds. A Brighter Future: Improving the Standard of Living Now and for the Next Generation. M. E. Sharpe, Chapter 11.

“Intangible Capital and Economic Growth,” International Journal of Behavioral and Healthcare Research, 3(3/4), 2012.

“Enduring Happiness: Integrating the Hedonic and Eudaimonic Approaches,” Journal of Socio-Economics, 40(5), September/October 2011.

“What Causes Obesity? And Why Has It Grown So Much?, ” Challenge, 54(4), July/August 2011.

“Beyond the Rationality of Economic Man, Toward the True Rationality of Human Man,” Journal of Socio-Economics, 37(5), October 2008.

“Why We Need a Commitment Approach to Environmental Policy,” Ecological Economics, 62(3-4), May 2007.

“What is Behavioral Economics?” Journal of Socio-Economics, 36(3), June 2007.

“Organizational Capital and Personal Capital: The Role of Intangible Capital Formation in the Economy” in Altman, Morris. (Editor) Handbook of Contemporary Behavioral Economics: Foundations and Developments. M.E. Sharpe, 2006.

“Understanding Human Welfare,” Indicators, 2(3), Summer 2003.

“Personal Capital, and Emotional Intelligence: Increasingly Important Intangible Sources of Economic Growth,” Eastern Economic Journal, 29(3), Summer 2003.

“Intangible Factors in the Eastern European Economic Transition: A Socio-Economic Analysis,” Post-Communist Economies, 14(4), December 2002.

“Human Well-being: A New Approach Based on Overall and Ordinary Functionings,” Review of Social Economy, 60(1), March, 2002.

“The Firm Is Human: It Is Not a Neoclassical Machine,” Indicators, 1(3), Summer 2002.

“Economic Man vs. Heterodox Men: The Concept of Human Nature in Schools of Economic Thought,” Journal of Socio-Economics, 30(4), 2001, 281-293.

“Understanding High Performance Work Systems: The Joint Contribution of Economics and Human Resource Management,” Journal of Socio-Economics, 30(1), 2001, 63-73. A revised version was published in Roger Frantz’s (editor) Renaissance in Behavioral Economics. Routledge, 2007.

“Addictions Are Not Rational: A Socio-Economic Model of Addictive Behavior,” Journal of Socio-Economics, 30 (3), 2001, 243-261.

"Organizational Capital and Joining-Up: Linking the Individual to the Organization and to Society," Human Relations, 51(6), 1998, 825-846.

"Beyond the Machine Model of the Firm, Toward a Holistic Human Model," Journal of Socio-Economics, 27(3), 1998, 323-340.

"Beyond Transaction Markets, Toward Relationship Marketing in the Human Firm: A Socio-Economic Model," Journal of Socio-Economics, 27(2), 1998, 207-228.

"Good Habits and Bad Habits: A New Age Socio-Economic Model of Preference Formation," Journal of Socio-Economics, 25(6), 1996, 619-638.

"Strategy and Structure in the Human Firm: Beyond Hierarchy, Toward Flexibility and Integration," Journal of Socio-Economics, 24(3), Fall 1995.

"Social Responsibility in the Human Firm: Towards a New Theory of the Firm's External Relationships," in A. Lewis and K. Warneryd, Eds. Ethics and Economic Affairs. Routledge, 1994.

"A New Rationale for Industrial Policy: Developing the Capabilities of the Learning Firm," International Review of Applied Economics, 7(2), 1993.

"The Human Firm in the Natural Environment: A Socio-Economic Analysis of its Behavior," Ecological Economics, 6(1992).

"Rational Organizational Decision Making in the Human Firm: A Socio-Economic Model," Journal of Socio-Economics, Summer 1992.

"The Social Causes of Economic Decline: Organizational Failure and Redlining," Review of Social Economy, Spring 1992.

"Organizational Capital: Unifying Soft Hearts and Hard Heads in a New Economic Age," Human Economy Newsletter, September 1990.

"Developing World Class Organization: Investing in Organizational Capital," Technovation, June 1990.

"Worker Participation: Paths to Higher Productivity and Well-being," in Shlomo Maital, ed. Applied Behavioural Economics. vol. II, Wheatsheaf Books, 1988.

"Productivity through Intra-firm Cooperation: A Behavioral Economic Analysis," Journal of Behavioral Economics, Spring 1987.

"Developing Organizational Comparative Advantage Via Industrial Policy," Journal of Post Keynesian Economics, Spring 1987.

"Productivity and Organizational Behavior: Where Human Capital Theory Fails," in Handbook of Behavioral Economics. Jai Press, 1986.

"Working Smarter the Japanese Way: The X-Efficiency of Theory Z Management," in Paul Kleindorfer, ed. The Management of Productivity and Technology in Manufacturing. Plenum Publishing Corp., 1985.

"Mortgage Redlining Behavior and Antiredlining Policy," Journal of Business, Spring 1984.

"The Japanese Company: The Challenges for Economists," Eastern Economic Journal, Jan.-March 1983.

"Worker Motivation: A Neglected Element in Micro-MicroTheory," Journal of Economic Issues, June 1981.

"Organizational Change, Organizational Capital and Economic Growth," Eastern Economic Journal, January 1981.

"Community Control and the Theory of the Firm," Review of Social Economy, October 1980.

"The Mounting Evidence on Mortgage Redlining," Urban Affairs Quarterly, June 1980.

"Entrepreneurs Outside the Innovating Organization: The Roles of Management Consultants," The 1975-1976 Papers and Proceedings of the New York State Economics Association, March 1978, Volume 8.

"An Approach to Understanding Mortgage Redlining," The 1976-1977 Papers and Proceedings of the New York State Economics Association, March 1978, Volume 8.

"Revenue Sharing and the Intrastate Fiscal Mismatch: A Critical View," Public Finance Quarterly, October 1977.

Shorter Publications

Entries in Real-World Decision Making: An Encyclopedia of Behavioral Economics. Morris Altman. Ed. ABE-CLIO Greenwood, 2015.

"Romesh Kumar Diwan: An Academic Obituary," Journal of Socio-Economics, 35(2), April 2006, (coauthors: Roberto Burlando, Steve Onyeiwu, Don Vitaliano).

Review of book, Responsibility and Social Capital: The World of Small and Medium Sized Enterprises, by Spence et al, Eastern Economic Journal, 32(3), Summer, 2006.

"Social and Organizational Capital," in Encyclopedia of Political Economy. Phillip O'Hara. Ed. Routledge, 1999.

"Discussion of Modes of Economizing," Journal of Economic Behavior and Organization, 1996.

"Harvey Leibenstein's X-Efficiency Theory," in Warren Samuels', et al, Ed., Handbook on Institutional and Evolutionary Economics. Edward Elgar Publishing Company. 1994.

Review of book, Regional Long Waves, Uneven Growth, and the Cooperative Alternative by Douglas Booth, Review of Social Economy, Spring 1989.

Review of book, Inside the Firm: The Inefficiencies of Hierarchy by Harvey Leibenstein, Journal of Economic Behavior and Organization, August 1989.

"On Relaxing the Maximization Postulate: A Comment," Journal of Behavioral Economics, Winter 1986.

"Worker Motivation and X-Efficiency Theory: A Reply," Journal of Economic Issues, September 1982.

RESEARCH IN PROGRESS

Why Buddhist Economics Is Needed: Overcoming Large Scale Biophysical and Socio-Economic Dysfunctions

PROFESSIONAL PRESENTATIONS

“Why Consumers Are Not Sovereign: The Socio-Economic Causes of Market Failure,” at Western Economic Association, San Diego, CA. June 28, 2017.

“The Scientific Practices of Economics and the Emergence of Behavioral Economics,” at Eastern Economics Association, Washington, DC, February 26, 2016; also at ICAPE Conference, Chicago, January 4, 2017.

Integrating Human Capital with Human Development (book presentations in 2016): January 9, Law & Socio-Economic Section, American Association of Legal Studies; February 11 and April 15, School of Social Welfare, State University of New York at Albany; February 26, Eastern Economic Association, Washington, DC; April 6, Manhattan College, School of Business Seminar.

“Smart Persons and Human Development,” at Eastern Economic Association Conference in NYC, February 27, 2015; also at SABE Conference in Sibiu, Romania, September 4, 2015.

“Integrating Human Capital with Human Development,” at SABE Conference at Lake Tahoe, July 22, 2014 and at ASE Session at ASSA Conference in Boston, January 3, 2015.

“Adverse Childhood Experiences, Poverty, and Inequality: Toward an Understanding of the Connections and Cures,” at Eastern Economic Association, March 8, 2014; also at Manhattan College and SABE at Lake Tahoe, July 23, 2014 .

“Economic Decision Making: How Our Brain Works,” at Herbert Simon Society, March 2013, New York City; at Eastern Economic Association, May 2013, New York City; at SABE, July 28, 2013 in Atlanta; and at Manhattan College.

“Stemming the Tide of Obesity: What Needs to Happen,” at the SABE Conference in Granada, Spain, July 15, 2012.

“Improving the Standard of Living through Investment in Intangible Capital,” invited presentation at the “Brighter Future” Conference at the Colorado Policy Studies Center at the University of Colorado in Colorado Springs on October 21, 2011. Also presented at the Business and Economics Society International Conference in Queenstown, New Zealand, January 9, 2012.

“Behavioral Economics and Brain Physiology: Going Beyond Simple Dual-Motive Theory” at the SABE/IAREP Conference in Exeter, UK, July 13, 2011.

“What Causes Obesity? And Why Has It Grown So Much? An Alternative View” at the SABE/IAREP Conference in Cologne, Germany, September 6, 2010. Also presented at the ASSA meeting in Denver on January 7, 2011 at an ASE session and at Victoria University on January 13, 2012.

“Enduring Happiness: Integrating the Hedonic and Eudaimonic Approaches” at the joint ASE/SABE session at the ASSA Conference in San Francisco, January 3, 2009; also at the SABE/IAREP Conference in Halifax, Nova Scotia, July 10, 2009.

“Intangible Capital, Economic Growth, and Governmental Policy” at the Society for the Advancement of Behavioral Economics Conference at New York University, NYC, May 17, 2007; also at the International Association of Pluralist Economic Associations Conference at the University of Utah, Salt Lake City, June 2, 2007

July 6, 2006 at the SABE-IAREP Conference in Paris, “Intangible Capital and Economic Growth: A Comprehensive and Unifying View.”; Later version at ASE session at ASSA Conference in Chicago, January 2007.

February 25, 2006 at the Eastern Economic Association Conference in Philadelphia in a SABE session, “Intangible Capital: A Comprehensive and Unifying View.”

March 4, 2005 at the Eastern Economic Association Conference in New York City in a SABE session, “Why We Need a Commitment Approach to Environmental Policy.” Later version presented at IAREP Conference in Prague on September 22, 2005. Also presented at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and Skidmore College during October 2005 and at USSEE Conference at Pace University, NYC, June 26, 2007..

- July 16, 2004 at the Society for the Advancement of Behavioral Economics (joint with IAREP) Conference in Philadelphia, "What Is Behavioral Economics?"
- July 30, 2003 at the Society for the Advancement of Behavioral Economics Conference at Lake Tahoe, "Organizational Capital and Personal Capital: The Role of Intangible Capital Formation in the Economy."
- January 6, 2002 at the Allied Social Sciences Association Meetings in Atlanta at a session sponsored by the Association for Social Economics, "Beyond the Rationality of Economic Man, Toward the True Rationality of Human Man." Also presented June 30, 2002 at the SABE-IAREP Conference in Turku, Finland.
- June 12, 2001 at the Society for the Advancement of Behavioral Economics Conference in Washington, DC, "The Firm Is Human: It Is Not a Neoclassical Machine."
- April 10, 2001 at Stetson University in DeLand, FL, "Beyond Mainstream Economics: Rationality, Well-Being, and Human Nature." (Keynote Address)
- July 19, 2000 at the Department of Economics of the University of Warsaw, Poland, "Intangible Factors in the Eastern European Economic Transition: A Socio-Economic Analysis." Also presented at the Society for the Advancement of Behavioral Economics Conference in Washington, DC on June 12, 2001.
- July 13, 2000 at the Society for the Advancement of Socio-Economics and International Association for Research in Economic Psychology Conference in Baden, Austria and July 20, 2000 at the Center for Social and Economic Analysis in Warsaw, Poland, "Social Capital, Personal Capital, and Emotional Intelligence: Increasingly Important Intangible Sources of Economic Growth."
- March 25, 2000 at the Eastern Economic Association Conference in Washington, DC, "Human Well-being: A New Approach Based on Overall and Ordinary Functionings"
- June 14, 1999 at the Society for the Advancement of Behavioral Economics Conference at San Diego State University, "Economics and Human Resource Management: Understanding the True Potential of the Employer-Employee Relationship."
- January 4, 1999 at the Allied Social Sciences Association Conference at a session sponsored by the Association for Social Economics, "Economic Man vs. Heterodox Men: How Heterodox Economists Understand the Human as Economic Actor."
- July 16, 1998 at the Society for the Advancement of Socio-Economics Conference at the Vienna International Center, Vienna, Austria, "Addictions Are Not Rational: A Socio-Economic Model of Addictive Behavior."
- June 21, 1997 at the Society for the Advancement of Behavioral Economics Conference at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Virginia, The Human Firm: A Socio-Economic Analysis of its Behavior and Potential in a New Economic Age.”

July 12, 1996 at the Society for the Advancement of Socio-Economics Conference at the University of Geneva, Geneva, Switzerland, "Beyond the Machine Model of the Firm, Toward a Holistic Human Model."

August 17, 1995 at the Society for the Advancement of Behavioral Economics Conference at the University of Toronto in Toronto, "Beyond Transaction Markets, Toward Relationship Marketing in the Human Firm: A Socio-Economic Model."

January 7, 1995 at an ASSA session sponsored by the Society for the Advancement of Behavioral Economics in Washington, DC, "Organizational Capital and Joining-Up: Linking the Individual to the Organization and to Society."

August 13, 1994 at the International Association for Research in Economic Psychology/Society for the Advancement of Behavioral Economics Conference in Rotterdam, Netherlands, "Good Habits and Bad Habits: A New Age Socio-Economic Model of Preference Formation." Also a closing talk entitled "Learning to Go Beyond Mainstream Economics: Using Existing Traditions, Creating New Traditions."

August 14, 1993 at the Society for the Advancement of Behavioral Economics Conference at the Rensselaerville Conference Center south of Albany, NY, "Strategy and Structure in the Human Firm: Beyond Hierarchy, Toward Flexibility and Integration."

January 7, 1993 at an ASSA session sponsored by the Association for Evolutionary Economics in Anaheim, CA, "Organizational Failure and Deindustrialization: The Failure to Invest in Appropriate Organizational Capital."

March 29, 1992 at the Society for the Advancement of Socio-Economics Conference in Irvine, CA, "Organizational Capital: Linking the Individual to the Organization."

January 5, 1992 at an ASSA session sponsored by the Association for Evolutionary Economics in New Orleans, "The Human Firm in the Natural Environment: A Socio-Economic Analysis of its Behavior." Also presented as part of a lecture series at Linköping University, Linköping, Sweden, on October 12, 1993.

January 3, 1992 at an ASSA session sponsored by the Association for Social Economics in New Orleans, "A New Rationale for Industrial Policy: Developing the Capabilities of the Learning Firm."

June 17, 1991 at a Conference on Interdisciplinary Approaches to the Study of Economic Problems sponsored by the Society for the Advancement of Socio-Economics and the International Association for Research in Economic Psychology in Stockholm, Sweden, "Social Responsibility in the Human Firm: Towards a New Theory of the Firm's External Relationships."

March 31, 1990 at a session of the Human Economy Center in the Eastern Economic Association Conference in Cincinnati, "Organizational Capital: Unifying Soft Hearts and Hard Heads in a New Economic Age."

March 18, 1990 at The Second Annual International Conference on Socio-Economics in Washington, DC, "Developing World Class Organization: Investing in Organizational Capital."

December 30, 1989 at a session sponsored by the Association for Social Economics in Atlanta, "Organizational Capital." Three discussants commented on my book.

October 7, 1989 at the Atlantic Economic Society Conference in Montreal, "Organizational Failure as Market Failure and its Implications for Industrial Policy."

April 1, 1989 at the Midwest Economic Association Conference in Cincinnati, "Worker Participation, Effort and Productivity."

December 28, 1988 at session sponsored by the Association for Social Economics in New York City, "A Normative Theory of Rational Organizational Decision Making."

August 15, 1986 at the Fourth World Congress of Social Economics in Toronto, "The Organizational Challenge of the Third Wave."

July 11, 1986 at the International Conference on Economics and Psychology in Tel Aviv, Israel, "Worker Participation: Paths to Higher Productivity and Well-being." Also presented at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and Manhattan College.

April 10, 1986 at the Eastern Economic Association Conference in Philadelphia, "Developing Organizational Comparative Advantage Via Industrial Policy."

May 22, 1984 at the First Behavioral Economic Conference in Princeton, "Productivity and Organizational Behavior: Where Human Capital Theory Fails." Also presented at Manhattan College and Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Fall 1984.

December 9, 1983 at the Wharton Conference on Productivity, Technology and Organizational Innovation in Philadelphia, a revised version of "Working Smarter the Japanese Way: The X-Efficiency of Theory Z Management."

August 18, 1983 at The Third World Congress of Social Economics in Fresno, California, "Productivity Through Cooperation: The Role of Japanese and Gandhian Development Strategies."

April 5, 1983 at The Second United States-Japan Business Conference in Tokyo, a revised version of "Working Smarter the Japanese Way: The X-Efficiency of Theory Z Management."

December 28, 1982 at session sponsored by the Association of Social Economics in New York City, "Working Smarter the Japanese Way: The X-Efficiency of Theory Z Management."

December 28, 1981 at session sponsored by the Association of Social Economics in Washington, D. C., "A Critique of U.S. Regulation in Light of the Japanese Approach."

September 6, 1980 at session sponsored by the American Real Estate and Urban Economics Association in Denver, "The Mounting Evidence on Mortgage Redlining"; also presented at Eastern Economic Association Conference (May 10, 1980 in Montreal).

September 5, 1980 at session sponsored by the Association for Evolutionary Economics in Denver, "Worker Motivation: A Neglected Element in Micro-Micro Theory."

October 11, 1979 at Atlantic Economic Society Conference, "External Social Control of Firm Behavior and the Success or Failure of Markets."

May 10, 1979 at Eastern Economic Association Conference, "Social Problems and Market Failure: A New Perspective," October 14, 1978 at Atlantic Economic Society Conference, "Organizational Change, Organizational Capital and Economic Growth."

April 27, 1978 at Eastern Economic Association Conference, "Redlining Behavior and Measures to Combat It."

October 15, 1977 at Western New York Economics Conference, "Organizational Capital, Production Possibility Frontier and X-Efficiency."

April 30, 1977 at New York State Economic Association Conference, "An Approach to Understanding Mortgage Redlining."

April 14, 1977 at Eastern Economic Association Conference, "Intangible Capital Formation and Economic Growth: The Management Consultant Contribution."

November 11, 1976 at U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, a presentation concerning a method for testing the hypothesis that mortgage redlining occurs.

April 30, 1976 at New York State Economic Association Conference, "Entrepreneurs Outside the Innovating Organization: The Roles of Management Consultants."

April 15, 1976 at Eastern Economic Association Conference, "The Revenue Sharing Allocation Formula and Equalization: The Problem and a Proposal for Change."

April 15, 1976 at Eastern Economic Association Conference, "Organizational Capital: A Product of Management Consultants' Efforts."

RESEARCH GRANT

Manhattan College Summer Research Grant: 1985, 1989, 1996, 2001, and 2007.

SPECIAL AWARD

Louis F. Capalbo Professor of Business for 1997-98 Academic Year.

INVITED TALKS AND TEACHINGS

April 10, 2001 at Stetson University, Deland, Florida, keynote talk to faculty and students entitled "Rationality, Well-Being, and Human Nature."

June 7-11, 2004 at Universidad Autonoma Metropolitana at Iztapalapa in Mexico City, Mexico, teachings to Ph.D. faculty and students entitled "The Human Firm and Intangible Capital."

EDITORIAL POSITIONS

Editorial Board: Appointed member of the External Review Board of the Journal of Behavioral Economics in Spring 1986. Appointed member of Editorial Board of Journal of Socio-Economics in 1991.

Editorship: Co-Editor of Journal of Socio-Economics, July 1, 2001 to December 31, 2012, responsible for book review editing and special editions.

Advisory Board Member, Social Sciences Research Network, Behavioral and Experimental Economics, 2004-present.

BEHAVIORAL ECONOMIC LEADERSHIP

SABE Leadership: Leader in efforts to reestablish and revive the Society for the Advancement of Behavioral Economics. Elected President, January 1992. Served as President for 11 years. Executive Director for 10 years.

OTHER PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES:

1. April 5-7, 1977, participated in the Seventeenth Central Banking Seminar (for money and banking teachers) at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York in New York City.
2. Served as discussant for a variety of papers in the fields of public finance, macroeconomics,

- money and banking, and economics of technological change at conference sessions sponsored by the Association for Evolutionary Economics, the Association for Social Economics, the Eastern Economics Association, the Atlantic Economic Society, the New York State Economic Association, the Society for the Advancement of Socio-Economics, and the Society for the Advancement of Behavioral Economics.
3. Thesis Supervision: Served on four Ph. D. thesis committees at RPI in areas of corporation finance, money and banking, and urban economics, and supervised a Master's thesis in corporation finance.
 4. December 28, 1979 at Allied Social Science Associations Conference, served as discussion leader in session entitled "Community Autonomy," sponsored by the Association of Social Economics.
 5. Chairman of Symposium Committee: As chairman played a major role in organizing a symposium entitled "Japanese Productivity: Lessons for America" at Union College on April 30-May 1, 1982. This interdisciplinary conference focused especially on the managerial sources of Japanese productivity; it was sponsored by the Social Science Division of Union College with the support of the Schenectady County Chamber of Commerce. The six speakers included Ezra Vogel and A.V. Feigenbaum.
 6. June 12, 1984 at an Association of Social Economics Conference entitled "Community Dimensions of Economic Enterprise" in Milwaukee, served as chairman of session entitled "Solidarity Among Firms and Industries."
 7. Organizer for Major Presentation: Proposed and took care of all the arrangements for a presentation by Professor Harvey Leibenstein at Manhattan College on November 7, 1985.
 8. Conference Organizing: As President of SABE, organized SABE's August 13-15, 1993 Conference at Rensselaerville, NY. The theme was "The Human Capacities of the Global Economy: Behavioral Economic Perspectives." Organized two sessions at the Society for the Advancement of Socio-Economics Conference in Paris on July 14-17, 1994. Organized five sessions at the SASE Conference in Geneva, Switzerland on July 12-14, 1996. Organized SABE poster session at the ASSA Conference in Boston on January 6, 2000.
 9. Board of Trustees: Elected to Board of Trustees of the Association of Social Economics in Fall 1996.

COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES:

1. Executive Board member of United Urban Ministry (a church supported organization engaging in a variety of community organizing activities in the Troy City area). UUM employed a staff of four. (December 1976-August 1983)

Vice President for Finance (January 1978-January 1981)
President (January 1982-August 1983).

2. Chairman and cofounder of the Community Reinvestment Committee (CRC). The CRC is a coalition of people concerned with the role of financial and housing market institutions in the decline of housing conditions in the river wards of Troy. A major accomplishment of the CRC was to obtain an agreement from the four savings banks in Troy to increase their lending commitment to the older areas of Troy. The CRC has played an active role in the development of the Residential Loan Program sponsored by the Urban Development Action Grant from H.U.D. (July 1977-July 1980).
3. Representative of Sycaway neighborhood on Citizen's Forum, a group which advises the Troy City Council on spending its Community Development Block Grant Funds (August 1975-August 1977).
4. Youth Athletic Activity:
 - Coach of YMCA basketball team, 1986
 - Assistant coach of Little League baseball team, 1986
 - Coach of YMCA soccer team, 1986, 1987
 - Assistant coach of Little League baseball team, 1989
 - Coach of Junior Team Tennis, 1993, 1994, 1995, 1996.
5. Teacher of Religious Education Class for Fifth and Sixth Graders at First Unitarian Society of Albany, Fall 1988.
6. Albany KTC, Kagyu Buddhist Group
 - Secretary, 2001- 2004
7. Adult League Tennis: USTA and WTT

MILITARY EXPERIENCE:

U.S. Army, 1964-1966, 2nd Lieutenant, 1st Lieutenant